

Bo Stjerne Thomsen, Chair of Learning through Play

Dr. Bo Stjerne Thomsen is the Chair of Learning through Play and part of the executive leadership team in the LEGO Foundation. As Chair and senior expert on how children and adults learn through play, he leads the learning and evidence agenda of the LEGO Foundation, and provides consultation at a bilateral, regional, and multilateral level to international partners and leaders. He represents the LEGO Foundation and the LEGO Brand Group at international fora, and advises leadership teams across the LEGO entities, to attain the overall LEGO Brand Vision of becoming a global force for Learning Through Play.

Bo Stjerne is also a visiting scholar at Harvard and Tufts University, and has published widely on Creativity, Play and Learning, most recently on the integrated role of technologies in everyday life, and the systems change needed in schools and education to achieve equitable outcomes. He is a frequent contributor and advisor to international governments and forums like OECD, WISE, UNGA and WEF, and setting directions for research institutions, partnerships, and projects worldwide, to bring attention to the quality of childhood and learning through play.
